

Weston Hoffman

4-H

Personal Summary

I have been in 4-H for 10 years now. I have gone to state events for 3 years, and have participated in county, district, and state events for 5 years. I served many officer roles through out my years in 4-H. these roles range anywhere from president of my club and county council, to district council vice president. This past year I served on the state executive board on the leg and ambassadors committees. I show my swine projects through my 4-H club at our county fair.

Life Skills

Teamwork

- Working and being flexible with your team helps make sure what you're doing runs smoothly.
- I collaborated with my fellow county council members to plan and host out county banquet
- On the leg planning committee, I worked with other committee members to plan 4-H legislature

Communication

- Communication is the key to a successful team and organization. Good communication is about how you feel and addressing things before it becomes a problem.
- After writing my bills for leg one of my favorite ones made it to the bill calendar. I reached out and talked with the bill sponsor to help and direct into the right direction for the bill.
- I had to communicate with my district council members to plan our district events

Leadership

- A good leader doesn't only just leads but also has to sit back and listen, and inspire there team with enthusiasm and passion. To make people feel valued by investing time and learning about their priorities, strengths and needs.
- I served as my club president this past year, where is presided over meetings, and corresponds with others in my club.
- I helped run a 4-H booth at my county fair where I promoted my county 4-H lead activities.
