PROJECT GOALS

Both your community and 4-H members should benefit from your project. In order to build strong goals, we recommend making your goals SMART.

SMART goals are specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound.

Specific: Who, what, where, when, why, and how

Measurable: How much? How many? How often? How do you measure progress?

Achievable: What resources and skills are necessary? Can you complete the project in the amount of time you have?

Relevant: How does this goal relate to the specific community challenge your group is combating?

Time-Bound: What deadlines have you set? When will the project be complete?

Goals for Your Community

How many members of the community will benefit from the project? What are some specific ways your community will be improved? How will this project make your community a better place?

---

---

---

---

---

---

Goals for 4-H Members

What will you learn? What skills will you develop? What will you accomplish?
